

WORLD OF INTERIORS
JANUARY 2009

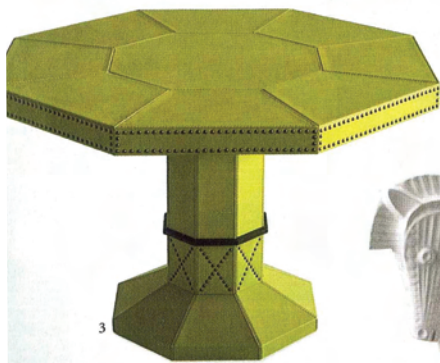

THE URBAN ELECTRIC CO.

antennae

1 In six years Dave and Jennifer Dawson have gone from being makers of a handful of exterior copper lanterns to leading lights in the world of illuminations. They provide fittings for historic restorations throughout the USA and work with the likes of Carlton Varney and Mark Maresca, who designed this 'Dorothy' chandelier ($5,875) and 'Olga' wall sconce ($1,135) respectively. Ring 001 843 723 8140, or visit urbanelectricco.com.

2 Christian Biecher employs colour to 'order and illuminate his spaces'. Inevitably, then, the ceramic tiles he designed for D emesure feature vibrant shades. The 60 x 60cm Gio Ponti-esque designs shown are 'Diamond' (in the room set) and two of four 'Neo-Geo' designs (left) - all cost  204 approx per sq m. Ring 00 33 4 72 13 52 01, or visit demesure.eu.

3 This leather-clad 'Senso' card table with studs is in the Neo-Neo-Gothic style. That is, it's a 21st-century take on the 19th-century Gothic Revival movement that was itself a reworking of the style central to the Middle Ages. Made by Delzers Studio for David Collins, it can be yours for  16,290 approx. Ring 020 7835 5000, or visit davidcollins.com.

4 'If your heirs won't fight over it, we won't make it' is Jonathan Adler's motto. It's certainly hard to deny that his creations, the latest of which include these 'Giant Bird' ($385) and 'Giant Horse' bowls ($495), probably will be coveted by future generations. He is the Russel Wright of the modern era, after all. Ring 001 212 645 2802, or visit jonathanadler.com.

5 Fazzini's forte is plain bedding; it makes five simply decorated designs that come in a total of more than 58 colourways. Shown from left are 'Inca' (from  42 approx for a single set) and 'Cleo' (from  103 approx for a double set). Ring 00 39 03 3126 3127, or visit fazzinisp.com ■